A word about UPC's. HUB currently does not subscribe to any UPC catalog service. In our 850 we send your vendor style and our internal SKU id. We are looking for that SKU id to be returned to us in the 856. We are trading with our other partners using this method and it appears to work well for us. I mention this as sometimes this is a problem for potential trading partners